Dear Parents and carers,

I am delighted to be able to write my first letter as the new headteacher of Winhills Primary Academy. I feel extremely honoured and privileged to have been chosen to continue to build upon the success the School has already achieved and developed. I very much look forward to developing this fantastic school further with its wonderful staff.

I have previously been headteacher of three well regarded primary schools and I am a mother to two little girls and baby boy. As a headteacher and a parent, my goal has always been to ensure my children are happy and achieve their potential. This is my aim and philosophy that I will bring to the role. My goal is to ensure that all children at Winhills are happy and provided with the best opportunities so they can be, 'the best they can be'.

Please be rest assured that as headteacher I will strive to create the best education for your child/ren whilst they are part of the Winhills family. Please do stop by to say hello and introduce yourself as I'll be at the school gate morning and afternoon. Thank you for your continued support and I look forward to meeting you.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. Roxanne d'Arcy
Head Teacher
On behalf of Winhills Primary Academy (part of the DLPT)
