

Key Vocabulary
friendship	Being friends with another person.
qualities	The behaviours that make up a person's character.
humorous	Something or someone that makes you laugh.
trustworthy	Someone you can trust.
respect	To treat someone or something like they matter.
disagreement	A falling out.
advice	Help.
conflict	A serious argument.
united	Working together.
resolve	Sort a problem out.

What makes a good friend?

A good friend may have particular qualities. They might be:

- kind
- humorous
- cheerful
- helpful
- caring
- trustworthy

We might not always agree with our friends but that is okay. We must listen to and respect the ideas of others, even if they are not the same as ours.

Falling Out

Sometimes friends might have a disagreement, like the lion and the tiger in the story of The Wind and the Moon.

Making Up

The lion and the tiger got some advice from a wise man. The man told them to 'live without conflict and remain united.' When we fall out, we have a choice about how to resolve it.

Religious Stories

The Wind and the Moon is a Buddhist story. Buddhism is one of the main world religions. There are lots of religious stories about friendship.

Key Vocabulary

Hindu	A follower of Hindu Dharma (one of the main world religions) or something linked to Hindu Dharma.
Christian	A follower of Christianity (one of the main world religions) or something linked to Christianity.
actions	Things that are done.
consequences	The effect of someone's actions.
Bible	The holy scripture followed by Christians.
Jesus	The son of God.
disciples	Followers of Jesus during his life.
apostles	Early Christian teachers.
tax collector	Someone whose job it is to collect money for the people in charge.

The Deer and the Crow

The Deer and the Crow is a Hindu story about friendship. In the story, the crow's actions help to save his friend. Friends look out for each other.

David and Jonathan is a Christian story about friendship from the Bible. Jonathan helped his friend even though the consequences could have been dangerous for him.

Jesus' Disciples

Twelve special disciples were chosen to be apostles. Jesus chose the twelve disciples himself. They were ordinary people like fishermen and tax collectors. The disciples left everything behind to follow Jesus and listen to his teaching. The disciples were called Simon, James, Andrew, John, Judas, Thaddeus, Peter, Matthew, Thomas, Phillip, Bartholomew and James the Younger. Jesus chose these twelve men because they had good qualities and they helped him spread his teaching to others.

